

Media release

1 July 2010

Valartis Group sells 35.2% of its shopping, recreation and office complex in Algeria

In light of the impending completion of its real estate development project in Algeria, the Valartis Group sold a 35.2% share of its shopping, recreation and office complex in Algiers to investors at the end of June, thereby reducing its stake from 73.9% to 38.7%.

The office, recreation and shopping complex, the first of its kind in Algiers, is located in an attractive location in the Bab Ezzouar business quarter and will open in summer 2010.
